

FINAL EXAM

1. Logistics Management at FEMA Headquarters plans, manages, and sustains national logistics operations in support of
  - a. Washington DC only
  - b. FEMA regions
  - c. Disasters
2. FEMA's logistics mission
  - a. must react to shifting conditions surrounding a disaster
  - b. is to deliver emergency supplies once scheduled routes are accessible
  - c. functions similarly to any static logistics system
3. In response to a disaster, the FEMA office in the affected area
  - a. fills requests for logistical assistance from state and federal partners
  - b. writes the policy, guidance, and standards for the state response
  - c. seeks a presidential disaster declaration
4. To ask for Federal assistance a request must be submitted to FEMA on an
  - a. Available Commodities Request Form
  - b. Action Request Form
  - c. Account Tasker Form
5. The Incident Logistics Section Chief is responsible for
  - a. supervising the three branches of the Logistics section
  - b. knowing exactly the types and amounts of resources that are needed for any impacted population in the US
  - c. building a national logistics management system
6. The Mass Care Support Unit
  - a. augments state and local mass care feeding and sheltering operations
  - b. provides mass care support to disaster responders only
  - c. supports the mass care function by organizing volunteers

7. The Camp Unit Leader

- a. is responsible for camp services for the disaster responders only
- b. coordinates camp operations for disaster responders and survivors
- c. maintains national contracts for camp establishment

8. The Temporary Housing Unit

- a. determines the housing solution for displaced disaster survivors
- b. assists disaster survivors with locating temporary housing
- c. operates a temporary housing incident support base

9. Incident Support Bases

- a. are not pre-determined sites
- b. are established if there is an anticipated or actual need for commodities to support disaster survivors
- c. cannot be established before a Presidential Disaster Declaration

10. Ninety percent of the Service Branch's responsibility is composed of

- a. information technology and telecom duties
- b. provision of medical services to incident personnel
- c. determining food and hydration requirements for responders

11. The Support Branch

- a. maintains functional areas as well as span of control
- b. manages facilities, supplies, and transportation during an incident
- c. is responsible for the transportation of injured and ill incident personnel

12. The Ground Support Unit

- a. establishes and supports facilities during an incident
- b. receives supplies in coordination with the Ordering Unit
- c. transports personnel, supplies, food, and equipment using fleet vehicles